

An Ice cream treat

By

Morgan Bailey

Johnny goes to his school for Ice cream. He is pretty popular and a lot of people like him. One day a new kid arrives. The new kid is Oreo flavored and everyone wants to be like him. Jane, the Oreo ice cream receives almost all attention. The Vanilla ice cream, Johnny, does not like this.

Johnny is thinking one day and decides he wants to be like Jane the Oreo ice cream. Johnny arrives at the tattoo parlor "Toppings and More". He decides he will finally get all the attention like Jane. He goes to school the next day with his new topping tattoo. Everyone at school called him a wannabe. Johnny did not like this kind of attention. Jane, the Oreo ice cream, didn't appreciate it either.

Johnny gets back into the tattoo parlor once more. He decides to take everything off. He goes back to school once more. He is a huge hit! Everyone loves him again. Everyone gives him more attention. He learns just to be himself and no one is like him!
